HOUSE FOR NEW BOARD OF CONTROL

Bill Provides Governor, Auditor and Attorney General Shall Be Members and Employ Purchasing Agent

MEDICAL BILL HAS MUCH ATTENTION

Senate Passes Bill Prohibiting Sale of Tobacco in Any Form to Minors and Turn Down Vote Proposal

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 13.—The senate today passed and sent to the house a bill making it unlawful to sell or give minors tobacco in any form and also makes its use by minors a crime. There were but three votes in the senate against the bill, Harrison, Wessel and Roberts opposing it on final passage.

The educational committee of the senate reported without recommendation the Christian Science medical bill and it was given place on the senate calendar for the committee of the whole. Interest in outcome of the bill is intense and daily supporters and opponents to the bill are at the capitol lobby.

The senate refused to adopt a resolution endorsing the election for an advisory vote on the federal judgeship.

The house, according to its custom, spent many hours discussing questions relating to Governor Hunt's stewardship as executive and today found food for discussion in Representative Jacob's bill to create a new state board of control which was agreed to by the house on the close vote of 19 with 14 against. The board will consist of the governor, auditor and attorney general and it can employ a purchasing agent at a salary of twenty-four hundred a year. The bill is yet to be finally passed.

However, the bill for registration of state voters to commence March 15 was given to Gov. Hunt this afternoon and he will act on same tomorrow.

NEWS BUREAU BISBEE REVIEW.

Room 203 N. B. Bldg., PHOENIX, March 11.—After much talk and argument the senate has finally passed and sent to the house a blacklist law which labor leaders here say is as weak as can possibly be drawn and which will either be amended in the house or killed. The measure is not in the form originally introduced by Senator Canfield but it had his approval when it was finally acted upon by the senate. Worcester, of Pima county, who had a blacklist bill he had prepared defeated in the senate voted for the bill which was adopted but he declared he did not approve of the bill on account of its weakness.

The measure as now before the house and as it passed the senate is as follows:

Sec. 1. It shall be unlawful for

U. S. STOP BATTLE-KOSTERLITZKY SURRENDERS

Many Dead and Wounded In a Fierce and Sanguinary 12 Hour Engagement at Nogales Yesterday

WOUNDING OF U. S. TROOPER CAUSES ENDING OF CONFLICT

COMMANDING OFFICER 5TH CAVALRY SOUNDS CEASE FIRING BUGLE -- BOTH SIDES OBEY -- STATE TROOPS, WINNERS AT TIME -- KOSTERLITZKY AND REYES CROSS LINE WITH MEN AND SURRENDER TO U. S. SOLDIERS

Constitutionalists overthrew the federal garrison at Nogales, Sonora tonight and are now in possession of the border town after a fight which continued with little abatement for twelve hours.

The casualties are estimated at 100 dead and twice that many wounded on both sides, although accurate count has not been made.

Private Allen A. Unfleet, troop G, Fifth cavalry, was wounded seriously by a rebel bullet while doing police duty near the line. The shot passed through his face from nose to ear. No other Americans were injured. Unfleet was shot down when the attack was at its height. Lieut. Col. Tate, in charge of the fifth cavalry patrol, sent word to State General Obregon, "You shot one of my men. Cease firing or I will be after you at once."

At the same moment firing from Kosterlitzky and Reyes men slackened. By some pre-concerted arrangement Tate called a bugler and ordered him to sound the Mexican "cease firing" order. The federal garrison instantly obeyed, but desultory firing continued to come from the besiegers.

Gen. Obregon succeeded in holding back the firing of his men. Kosterlitzky and Reyes immediately crossed with their men to the U. S. side and surrendered to Col. Wilbur E. Wilder, 5th cavalry, who arrived too late to take command of the American troops. The Mexican federal soldiers stacked arms before the American troops and disbanded.

More than thirty wounded on both sides rest in the hospital here, while the dead dot the mesa land south of Nogales. The attackers suffered most heavily and of the thousands of men who made the march against the garrison of 300 regulars, the number of dead cannot be accurately estimated.

A rain of lead dropped over the American town, and many citizens narrowly escaped injury. Stray balls fell in the streets, some penetrating houses and narrowly missing American homes. The destruction in the Sonora town was great, although the majority of the buildings are adobe.

Gen. Obregon gave the order to attack early this morning and the rebels maintained some distance from the town until nightfall. Three desperate attacks on the federal soldiers were necessary to dislodge them from their defensive position. The most strenuous assault was made at 5 o'clock, when constitutionalists charged the federal front left flank and rear.

Wicked fighting continued for a quarter of an hour, when there was a sudden assault by the rebel reserves on the right flank of the enemy who resisted half an hour, but they were unable to face the terrific slaughter on all sides and retreated to the shelter of the town and ceased firing.

At this time Lieut. Col. Tate gave orders to cease firing. It is said the American officer had given orders to cross into Mexico if the protection of Americans demanded such a course and give battle to the rebels and federals alike in the event they disobeyed the order to cease firing. Immediately after the first bugle call from the American troops Lieut. Col. Tate began assembling his men, then a second call was given and obeyed.

A messenger from the American officer with General Obregon at the time of the first bugle call declared upon his return that the rebel general immediately gave orders to cease firing but his jubilant men fired their rifles in the air. At once, as related by the messenger, General Obregon shot down the leader of the celebrators.

A conference has been arranged between General Obregon and Col. Wilder tonight. Red Cross volunteers on this side of the boundary were constantly in attendance on the wounded of both forces. Ambulances bearing the Red Cross flag hurried back and forth between the besieged town and this city, carrying the wounded soldiers to the hospitals. Many wounded remain on the field and it is declared to be impossible to succor them until morning. Several Mexican residents of this city were injured while watching the battle.

KOHLER MAKES DEFENSE

CLEVELAND, O. March 13.—In an attempt to prove the presence of the "Golden Rule" Chief Kohler in another place than the home of Samuel D. Shearer, on the two nights specified in charges of gross immorality, the defense placed several police officers on the stand today. It is expected Kohler will take the stand in his own defense tomorrow.

SONORA PLAINLY IN HANDS OF STATE FORCES

THE SITUATION AS IT IS IN SONORA

NOGALES, March 13.—Today's victory for the state troops throws practically the entire north of the insurgent border state into the hands of the anti-Huerta forces. Agua Prieta fell yesterday without a shot.

General Ojeda, marching to assist Nogales, must traverse 100 miles of trail with poor horses and all the railways cut between Naco and this point. Naco, a subordinate port to Nogales, remains in the hands of more than 200 federal regulars. At Cananea the mining center below Naco, the federal garrison has been mingling peacefully with a force of state troops, indicating that no resistance to the almost overwhelming landslide against Huerta will be made.

Strong detachments of Constitutionalists from the vicinity below Douglas are pursuing Ojeda's column of some 500 federal regulars, mostly refugees from the routed federal garrisons at El Tigre and Nacozari.

ON IMMEDIATE BORDER

Gen. Ojeda continues at Naco. No trouble in prospect at Cananea proper. More bridges burned on Naco-Cananea road yesterday. Information from presumably reliable sources indicates step taken to force Cananea Federalists to go to relief of Ojeda, purpose being to draw them from protection of barracks.

Rumor that in both Cananea and Naco many of Federal forces are ready to desert to state commanders and that belief of state leaders that such accessions will be made of part, if not all, of Federal explains non-interference attitude.

FORCES MINGLE AMICABLY AT CANANEA

CANANEA, March 13.—The state and federal troops are mingling amicably here today, though American residents feared an attack when word reached here during the night that Manuel Dieguez, former mayor, with 225 men was marching on the city.

The federal garrison prepared for an expected attack, but the constitutionalists came in town by a circuitous route. When their presence was discovered the Huerta soldiers made no resistance.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Testimony tending to show the title of firemen and engineers to increased wage brought in hearing today.

FEDERALS AND STATE MEN MINGLE AT CANANEA -- OJEDA STRANDED AT NACO -- MORE RAILROAD BRIDGES BURNED -- GOVERNORS REPORTED SHOT IN SOUTH.

CANANEA, Son., Mex., March 13.—The constitutionalists who arrived in Pueblo Nuevo on Wednesday morning have been joined by 125 more men under command of Jesus Vazquez. This brings the number to about 450 armed men. The chief commander is Manuel M. Dieguez, Cananea's mayor, while second in command is Alfredo Duric. A brother of the famous "Red" Lopez, who took prominent part in the Mexican revolution of 1910-11, is also in the gathering.

Wednesday was spent by the men in securing horses and every available animal found was promptly appropriated. A number of American livestock and their animals and upon complaint being made to Dieguez he promised that they would be returned.

Several Chinese merchants about the city have honored orders for provisions in the amount of about 500 pesos each, written orders being presented by the men signed by Dieguez, who has announced that attempts made to appropriate animals or merchandise unless on orders signed by himself should be resisted.

The Cananea dairy was visited by a small command, six men, on Wednesday afternoon and the Chinese cook cooked the men a meal. They did not molest any of the stock. E. D. Conger, local news dealer, lost a saddle animal this morning. He had just received his consignment of Reviews from Bisbee by automobile and the horse was awaiting his rider when a soldier mounted him and rode off. Complaint was made to Dieguez, who said he would return the horse.

Dieguez, when interviewed by the Review correspondent, said that he had come to Cananea upon orders, and was to await further orders here. When asked who was in charge of the state troops he said that Gov. Pesquera was looked to.

DECISIONS REACHED LATE LAST NIGHT

Tillman Wins Fight -- Postmaster General Makes Announcements, Including Taft Criticisms

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The democratic forces took charge of the senate today and elected new officers to preside over the body and paved the way for reorganization of the committees which now controls legislative affairs.

Another session of the democratic "steering committee," lasting late into the evening, brought the committee lists near to completion.

It is expected the democratic caucus tomorrow will prepare all committees for presentation to the senate on Saturday.

The personnel of the finance committee, which will handle all tariff bills, became definitely known tonight. As now agreed upon it stands:

Democrats—Chairman, Simmons, Senators Stone, Williams, Johnson, Shively, Gore, Oklahoma, Thomas, James, Hughes.

Republicans—Senators Penrose, McCumber, Lodge, Smoot, Gallinger, Clark, LaFollette.

Information late tonight indicated also that Senator Tillman won his personal fight for the chairmanship of the appropriations committee, the second in the senate. Persistent efforts have been made several days to induce the South Carolina senator to surrender his seniority right to Senator Martin, of Virginia and take the chairmanship of naval affairs. It is stated tonight, on high authority, however, that the place is practically assured to Senator Tillman.

Postmaster General Burleson announced today he had planned all fourth class post masters on a civil service basis; that all second and third class post masters and possibly also the first class postmasters will be in the classified service before he finished.

As to fourth class postmasters, he declared that former President Taft had not gone far enough, but that he should have taken a step further and instead of transferring positions originally filled as a reward for political service to a classified roll, he should have required an examination to determine fitness. The postmaster-general said he had not finally decided how to handle the situation.

President Wilson's advisers today hit upon solution of two political problems confronting the administration. These are:

What kind of democrats will get plums from the political tree. How thousands of democrats throughout the country may be given a fighting chance to at least get near the tree.

Within the next few days Postmaster General Burleson is expected to present for the president's consideration a plan which will open to the democrats 25,000 postmasterships in the third and fourth class, placed under civil service recently by Taft. Burleson said tonight he had not decided whether to ask revocation of this order. Should he not, he will suggest that postmasters benefited by the Taft order be required to pass a merit test, open also to others. If the president takes the first course, thousands of postmasterships will be available at once. In the other event democrats who enter the merit competition will have as good a chance as republican incumbents.

It is expected that the republican caucus of the Sixty-third congress will re-elect Representative Mann of Illinois as minority leader in the house.

ALASKAN COAL LANDS

CHICAGO, March 13.—The names of George J. Gould, J. P. Morgan and the Guggenheims came today in testimony in Alaskan Coal land trials. It was Albert C. Frost's plan, testified O. G. Laberee, a government witness, to procure coal lands and dispose of them for a profit to the Guggenheims. Laberee said he dealt with Charles Sweeney, of the Federal Smelting, for the sale of the coal lands.

NEW PLAN IS BAR TO W. P.

Acceptance by U. S. and California Will Mean Victory for the Southern Pacific Affiliation.

NOW LOOKS THAT WAY

NEW YORK, March 13.—The Southern Pacific company, with the concurrence of the U. P. announced today a modified plan of dissolution under the Supreme court decree in place of the original plan, which recently met serious opposition from the California railroad commission.

The new plan, as outlined by Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the S. P., substantially provides for a traffic agreement without trackage privileges to the U. P. and Central Pacific. In brief, the Southern Pacific is willing to carry U. P. and C. P. traffic over the Benicia cut-off and the California terminals, instead of allowing those roads direct use of this cut-off and S. P. terminals.

Incidentally, although this was not referred to by Kruttschnitt, the acceptance by federal authorities and California of these provisions effectively would bar the Western Pacific, which asserted its right to use the Benicia cut-off and the Southern Pacific terminals.

DECLARES HYDE MURDERER

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 13.—Col. Thomas H. Swope was not a sick man on the day of his death. Twenty minutes after Dr. Hyde administered a certain capsule, he was dead. Twenty minutes was the exact time required for cyanide of potassium to act. These declarations were made by Prosecutor Jacobs in his argument to the jury today in the third Hyde murder trial.
